Kennedy.

Again we come from Kennedy. Hal Trester is back in these parts again. C. B. Ganow and wife spent last Sunday at Mr. Spains's. Times are getting lively around Kennedy. Seems to be lots of excitement.

Nearly everybody has been haying but owing to so much rain it is making haying slow.

J. H. Bachelor had a well put down in his pasture last Saturday, J. N. Steadman doing the work.

Ed and and Homer Harris were visiting in these parts last Sunday. They are putting up hay for Geo. Sawyer.

Wm. Erickson and Ed Richards traded horses one rainy day last week. I guess they both made expenses.

The rain Sunday spoiled the ball game and horse races, but it will quit raining after awhile and then they can come off.

Bailey Briefs.

Minnie Soans is working for B. F. Nelson.

Kittie Buckminster is working for Mrs. Young.

Goodin Bros. will do stacking for Bishop and Young.

Bessie Hauver was visiting with Lulu Sellers the 31st.

Private monopoly is still doing business at the old stand.

Henry Goucher and Geo. French were carping in Bailey last week.

Remember the things that made you glad, but forget the things that made you sad.

We have been having swell weather for corn but poor weather for haying the past week.

Harry Heath, Geo. Weede and Coar and Mollie Gunderson were visiting at Seiders Bros. last Sunday.

There is considerable hay cut down in this section of the country, the second cutting of alfalfa, and other kinds.

GUESS WHO I AM.

Penbrook Quills.

A fine rain Sunday.

Guy McConneyhay was in Penbrook Sunday.

Mr. Nweman, of town, was down last week.

Albert Hutchison was up to town the first of the week.

Mr. Hittle went to Valentine Saturday and returned Monday.

Mont Bishop, of Valentine, was at Penbrook Monday of last week.

J. F. Swain went to town Monday and brought out a new Deering binder.

A boy about 13 years old got his leg broke at Norden Saturday while playing ball.

Mesdames Ruzey, Simons and Hunt visited several days in this neighborhood last week.

Miss Alice Jones returned last week after about an eight months

Base Ball.

Our town was aroused one day from quietude, By poster bills in grand array, Of some eastern girls, who had formed a club, Of base ball, the local clubs to play.

Now this fair club had a name quite up-to-date. By the big printed words in their "ad" You'd think they knew all about playing base ball And their name had proven not bad.

The time rolled around when the game was begun; Spectators all straining their eyes, To get a good look at a girl on the run Or see how they managed the "flies."

With breathless amazement each one viewed the sight Of Bloomer Girls all dressed in red: Some dark in complexion but most of them light, All sun browned, but looking well fed.

The Valentine boys took their "ins" and went out After making three tallies plain, The Bloomers were out in first inning about Three seconds from time they went in.

The game was a graft for the Bloomers, that's all; Though they play a good game at ease, They're not in our class in playing base ball, But play for the cash and to please.

They joshed our dear umpire John Tucker so hard, We fear that he'll not grow no more, His smoking and running they joshed and they jarred, His joshers were fully a score.

Their sayings were new to our boys of the bat, Their joshes and phrases were cute, They called them such names and had it down pat, That finally our boys were mute.

They simply play'd ball or saw'd wood if you choose And beat them nine tallies to four, The Bloomer gals do not shed tears when they lose, But keep right on making their tour.

visit in the eastern part of the state. PORCUPINE.

Down The River.

Frank Ashburn went to Valentine Saturday.

Shorly Mumford was in town one day last week.

Miss Myrtle Dodson is working in Valentine at present.

Miss Nellie Ashburn spent a few days with her brother this week.

Perry Bryant and wife spent Sunday of last week at Mr. Palmer's.

Lon and Felix Nollett and families went to church in Valentine Sunday.

Jacob Saurwein's mother, sister, brother and brother-in-law visited him and his wife Sunday.

The dance at Henry Groom's was well attended and all that were present seemed to enjoy themselves.

Porcupine, of Penbrook, stopped over night at A. Grooms' on his way home from town one day this week.

Paul Charbonneau and brother went to Valentine Tuesday after his wife who has been there for the past two or three weeks, having an operation performed on their little baby's nose.

A short time ago the U. S. mail that is carried by A. Haley was held up on Ft. Sandy between Valentine and Ft. Niobrara. The hail and ice came down in such torrents and Mr. Haley's team not being shod, was compelled to hold up for awhile until the hail had melted down before he could go on.

YOUNGSTER.

Arabia Screenings.

Francis Higgin is spending the summer with M. J. Jordan.

Oren Grooms, of Valentine, is working in the hay field for A. Benson.

Carl Keeley has returned from the west and is working for Fred Buchle this summer.

About ten days ago Miss Mary Jordan returned from Omaha where she had been under medical treatment. She looks much improved and we hope she may soon rejoice in a complete recovery.

Clinton E. Collett, who taught school here last winter, is working for M. Jordan this summer. Clinton is a good boy and deserving of great success which is sure to be his if he continues in the right path.

Abe Bunn, our genial merchant, says there is only one thing worse than stealing sheep and that is storekeeping. Of course he can't mean it for he certainly enjoys great advantages over merchants in other towns.

M. Jordan lost two very fine cattle during one of the past electric storms. All ranchmen should insure their stock as their buildings, for even if they have no losses the premium money is not wasted for a part of it will go toward paying the losses of the unfortunate.

The well filled columns of THE DEMOCRAT have not contained any Screenings for many weeks but we will now try to fill the long felt want. As usual the citizens of Arabia are prospering, but then what else could they do, enjoying the present republican prosperity, a full dinner pail and an overflowing purse?

MAUDE.

The Rev. Robert E. Lee Craig, Episcopal minister of Omaha, while in central Nebraska holding past Lenten services and baptizing some babies was arrested for shooting 21 meadow larks. He was fined $110.00.

He stole a summer song, dear, This godly man of mark, He made the spring day silent, He killed a meadow lark.

The plow-man in the morn, dear, Will miss the dawn-tipped wings, That soaring upward taught him, To think of nobler things.

And the children off to school, dear, Across the fresh turned sod, Will seek in vain the songster, That kept them close to God.

And all the summer long, dear, Each day when it is done, We'll wonder who to-morrow, Will welcome up the sun.

For he is dead and cold, dear, Our little meadow lark, And he sang a song of love to That godly man of mark. —DON ADAMS.

A Trans-Continental Gateway

A new book descriptive of Omaha issued by The North-Western Line.

One of the most attractive railroad publications that has been seen in quite a while is the booklet descriptive of Omaha, Council Bluffs and South Omaha, now being distributed by the passenger department of the Chicago & North-Western Ry. It is a very interesting publication giving a mass of information as to the historical, civic and commercial growth of the cities named, all gotten up in excellent taste, handsomely illustrated and bound in an attractive cover. The North-western Line is to be complimented on the spirit evidenced in producing this publication, which it is hoped will be of much value to those cities to whose interest the little volume is devoted.

A copy of the book may be secured on receipt of 2-cent stamp sent to E. C. Cheyney, General Agent, 1401 Far-nam St., Omaha.
